Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Hires Rene H. Yamaguchi, Compliance Assistant

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) has hired Rene H. Yamaguchi as compliance assistant. In this position, Yamaguchi will assist in the coordination of the credit union's overall compliance with applicable federal and state rules, regulations and statutory requirements.

"We are pleased that Rene has joined us," said Wallace Watanabe, president and CEO of Aloha Pacific. "She will help to strengthen Aloha Pacific by assisting with compliance maintenance and ensuring that all requirements are met."

Prior to joining Aloha Pacific, Yamaguchi worked with the Wealth Management Group at First Hawaiian Bank, where she was primarily responsible for probate and guardianship court accountings.

A graduate of University of Hawaii at Manoa, Yamaguchi majored in finance and earned a bachelor of business administration degree. She is a resident of Waimanalo, Hawaii.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $415 million in assets. It has three branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family
