Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Christy Ramones to Senior Electronic Services Manager

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Christy Ramones to senior electronic services manager.

Ramones' duties will include directing departmental development, assisting with the design and implementation of new technological and operational enhancements and fostering positive morale among team members to create an environment that is focused on member satisfaction.

Ramones joined Aloha Pacific in June 1994 as a teller. She transferred to the electronic services department in 1998 and has served in many capacities within the department. Her previous electronic services positions include share draft processor, ACH processor, senior representative, supervisor and manager.

She is a graduate of Kalani High School.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:
