Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Julie Beth Kanae to Accounting Supervisor

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Julie Beth Kanae from senior accountant to accounting supervisor.

Kanae's duties will include assisting the accounting manager with overseeing the department, ensuring positive cash flow and presenting accurate and timely financial statements. She will also be in charge of maintaining the credit union's investment portfolio, which has investments in over 750 certificates and securities.

Kanae joined Aloha Pacific in Feb. 2002, bringing 30 years of financial experience to the credit union. She has spent much of her career in financial institutions and has experienced working in different departments. Besides working in accounting, she has been a branch manager, loan clerk and ATM balancer.

She is a graduate of Kamehamaha Schools and earned her degree in human services and early child education at Honolulu Community College. She has continued her education throughout her career and has completed the certified credit union executive courses provided by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA). She has also completed many of CUNA's staff training and recognition program, earning certificates in credit union accounting, consumer lending, member services and professional development.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has four branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
