Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Kaipo Nuuanu to Electronic Services Manager

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Kaipo Nuuanu to electronic services manager.

As an electronic services manager, he will work closely with the senior electronic services manager to propose and implement new initiatives and projects. These projects are aimed at streamlining internal processing procedures to decrease operational expenses and produce the most cost-effective processes to benefit members.

Nuuanu joined Aloha Pacific in 2004 as the electronic services supervisor and was responsible for overseeing day-to-day operations of six employees. He also handled ACH, share draft and ATM deposit processing, maintenance and fraud claims and ATM terminal installation and maintenance. He was named employee of the year in 2005. His previous credit union experience includes 14 years in electronic services and two years as a senior call center representative.

He is a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and is currently working to become an accredited ACH professional (AAP).

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has four branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
