Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Cammie Furoyama to IRA Administrator

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Cammie Furoyama to IRA Administrator.

She will maintain and coordinate the credit union's IRA program, life savings/loan protection claims, student loan program and trust accounts. She will also work to ensure efficient, timely and accurate processing and maintenance of investment and insurance files.

Furoyama has been with Aloha Pacific for four years and has 12 years of experience in the financial industry. She most recently served as call relations manager, where she oversaw the daily operations of the call center, was responsible for underwriting consumer loans and maintained online correspondence for the credit union.

Furoyama is a graduate of Mid-Pacific Institute and the University of Hawaii at Manoa, where she earned a bachelor's degree in business administration.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has five branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
