Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Jo Ann Tatsuyama to Senior Branch Manager

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Jo Ann Tatsuyama to senior branch manager.

She will have financial and operational accountability for the main and Hawaii Kai branches where she will be responsible for branch administration, staff supervision and customer service excellence. She will also establish and implement operational, business and service objectives.

Tatsuyama has been with Aloha Pacific for 25 years and most recently served as main branch manager, where she was responsible for supervising the financial services and member relations departments. She has extensive financial products and services knowledge and has held such titles as loan processor, home equity loan officer and mortgage loan officer.

A graduate of Kaimuki High School, Tatsuyama has worked in the financial industry for 27 years.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has five branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
