Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Joy Rafael to Branch Development Manager

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announces the promotion of Joy Rafael to branch development manager.

Her duties include being responsible for all operational aspects of opening new branches, managing a relief department and providing staffing support to branches when coverage is needed.

Rafael has been with Aloha Pacific for 16 years and most recently served as assistant branch manager, where she was responsible for supervising the day-to-day branch operations and monitoring staff performance. She began her career as a teller and has been promoted several times before achieving her current position. She also has experience working in the consumer loan department.

A graduate of Farrington High School, Rafael has about 20 years of experience in the financial industry with 17 of those years focused on credit unions. She is CPR and first aid certified.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has five branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
