Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Announces 2010 Board of Directors

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) is pleased to announce the results of its 2010 election for the board of directors. Balloting was held on Monday, Mar. 1 through Tuesday, Mar. 16 at Aloha Pacific branches. The following candidates received the most member votes: Allan Fujimoto, Gary Iwai and Stanley Inamasu.

They join our other directors, Ann Gima, Darwin Hamamoto, Joseph Magaldi, Jr. and Karen Shishido, in shaping and monitoring the credit union's strategic goals.

Each board of director is a member in good standing of Aloha Pacific and elected by their popular vote for a two-year term. They are responsible for overseeing the growth and development of the credit union through initiatives that are carried out by credit union employees.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $612 million in assets. It has nine branches and 48 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
