Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Ross Inouye to Director of Consumer Lending

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) promoted Ross Inouye to director of consumer lending from senior consumer loans manager. He is responsible for all aspects of the consumer loans department and will institute initiatives to increase production, improve operational efficiencies and develop the staff. He will also implement systems to increase service quality and expand the credit union's indirect lending department.

Inouye has been with Aloha Pacific since August 2008 and has 20 years of experience in the financial industry working at companies such as Associates Financial Services, First Interstate Bank and Citi Auto.

Inouye is a graduate of University of Hawaii at Manoa with a business degree in economics and finance.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $500 million in assets. It has nine branches and 46 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association and more than 1,000 select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
