Chris A. Diebling joins Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union's Board of Directors

HONOLULU — Chris A. Diebling is the newest member of the board of directors of Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union, joining Gary Iwai, Stan Inamasu, Allan Fujimoto, Ann Gima, Ben Dimond, and Darwin Hamamoto.

Mr. Diebling is a retired attorney for the City & County of Honolulu's Department of Corporation Counsel. He has been a public defender; acting director of the city's Department of Budget and Fiscal Services; and a U.S. Navy officer. He is a business graduate of California State University-Los Angeles and earned his law degree from the University of San Francisco.

The board of directors is responsible for overseeing the growth and development of the credit union through initiatives that are carried out by credit union employees.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $715 million in assets. It has 10 branches, including one in Las Vegas, and 47 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association and more than 1,000 select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
