Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Offers Financial Assistance to Former Aloha Airlines Employees

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announced the Aloha Airlines Employee Assistance Loan today, a special personal loan opportunity for former Aloha Airlines employees to help relieve their growing financial burdens.

The Aloha Airlines Employee Assistance Loan is a signature loan of up to $5,000 with a maximum term of 36 months. Available only to former Aloha Airlines employees, the loan has a special fixed rate of 8.00% APR and a payment deferral period of 90 days (Interest will accrue during the deferral period.)

In addition, our financial advisors, Gwen Inouye and Chad Kunihiya are offering free financial planning consultations. They have already helped several employees organize and prepare their finances for their career transition.

"We understand the financial hardship former Aloha Airlines employees may be facing at this time and would like to extend a helping hand," said Aloha Pacific president/CEO Wallace Watanabe. "It is our wish to help our members and their families through this rough time."

The Aloha Airlines Employee Assistance Loan is subject to membership and credit approval. Aloha Pacific membership ($100 in a savings account) can be done simultaneously with the loan application. Former Aloha Airlines employees must provide a recent pay stub or an employment termination letter when applying. APR = Annual Percentage Rate. Term up to 36-month, no pre-payment penalty. Offer expires 08/31/08.
