Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Promotes Gary K. Nakata to Vice President / Chief Financial Officer

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union promoted Gary K. Nakata to vice president/chief financial officer. In this position, he will be responsible for directing all financial activities for the credit union, including accounting, finance and electronic financial services. He has been with the credit union since 2004.

As a member of the Hawaii State and California State Bar Association, he also serves as the de facto legal counsel advising on legal and regulatory compliance matters affecting the credit union. Nakata is a graduate of the American Bankers Association's National Regulatory Compliance School and has been nationally recognized by the Institute of Certified Management Accountants as a certified management account and certified in corporate financial management.

Prior to joining the credit union, Nakata was appointed a deputy corporation counsel by the City and County of Honolulu and practiced law privately at a law firm in Honolulu. His main areas of focus were corporate, banking and real estate law, including representation of financial institutions.

Nakata earned a bachelor of business administration degree in finance from the University of Hawaii at Manoa and a juris doctor degree with distinction from the University of the Pacific. He is currently a member of West Honolulu Rotary Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce. He also served in the Hawaii Air National Guard for 13 years before receiving an honorable discharge.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $500 million in assets. It has six branches and 45 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
