Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union Opens Hawaii Kai Branch

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) announced the opening of its newest branch in the Koko Marina Center on Aug. 25. This is its fifth location.

Hawaii Kai is a full-service community-style branch with evening and weekend hours (9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on weekdays and 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday). Like the flagship branch located at Fort Street, Hawaii Kai will feature a free WiFi internet café, espresso machine for members and a comfortable and welcoming interior design. Aloha Pacific's signature remote teller systems are open for both member and shared branch transactions. KALABASH ATMs are open to everyone.

A weeklong grand opening celebration is scheduled for Oct. 22 to 25 and will include daily activities and member specials.

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $450 million in assets. It has five branches and over 40 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
