Aloha Pacific FCU Wins 2009 Psychologically Healthy Workplace Award for Non-Profit Category

HONOLULU—Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union (Aloha Pacific) was awarded first place in the non-profit category for the 2009 Psychologically Healthy Workplace Award. The Hawaii Psychological Association presented the award today at its annual conference, which was held at the Ala Moana Hotel.

The award was designed to recognize organizations that are committed to fostering employee health and well-being in addition to enhancing organizational performance and productivity. The award criteria include seven major areas: employee involvement; work-life balance; employee growth and development; health and safety; employee recognition; communication; and community service.

"It is an immense honor to receive this award," said Wallace Y. Watanabe, president/CEO of Aloha Pacific. "It is an acknowledgement that the corporate culture established in 1936 is still relevant and meaningful today. We are very fortunate to have so many great employees make up our Aloha Pacific ohana."

About Aloha Pacific Federal Credit Union:

Founded in 1936 by industrious city employees, Aloha Pacific FCU is the third largest credit union in Hawaii with more than $612 million in assets. It has seven branches and 45 ATMs. Membership is open to employees of the City & County, members of the Hawaii Government Employees Association as well as other select employee groups (SEGs) and their immediate family.
